DESIGNER ZHOR TIBER FOLLOWS HER OWN RULES WHEN IT COMES TO STYLE

With her short bangs, heavy coal make-up, supersized jewellery and sky-high heels, Zhor Tiber looks like a modern-day, high-fashion incarnation of Cleopatra. And while she may not rule over an actual empire, the Moroccan-born mother-of-two certainly has a wardrobe of pharaonic dimensions. After a career at prestigious fashion houses such as couturier Jean-Louis Scherrer, Nina Ricci and Emanuel Ungaro, the knitwear and fur designer launched her own line in 2007, Zhor & Néma, together with her late sister. Splitting her time between Paris and Hong Kong, Tiber now sells her collections to some of the world's premier retailers, including Barneys New York and Lane Crawford Hong Kong.

- 1. BALLON BLEU DE CARTIER CHRONOGRAPH
"Ever since I was given one of my father's watches when I was young, I have been wearing men's watches. I really can't imagine wearing a woman's style."
- 2. BKS IYENGAR YOGA BOOK
"I have been practising Iyengar yoga for a long time. It helps me achieve a balance of mind and body."
- 3. ANIMAL SKIN BANGLES
"I designed these bangles and had them made by an African craftsman using very light, indigenous wood. I never use new leopard fur, but recycle it from vintage coats."
- 4. CHANEL KOHL MAKE-UP
"My dark eye make-up was initially inspired by my mother's traditional kohl make-up. Without realising it, I have applied more and more over the years."
- 5. PRADA CADILLAC SHOES
"I love Miuccia Prada; she's a designer that always surprises me. Even though she brings something new with every collection, you can always mix different seasons."
- 6. ZHOR & NÉMA CASHMERE AND MINK COAT
"This coat stems from our line's first collection. It's a complicated design, which took the furrier over a month to make."
- 7. HERMÈS CROCODILE BIRKIN
"I prefer timeless and classic designs for my bags, and have accumulated quite a collection of Hermès bags over time."
- 8. PERFUME FLACON
"I'm using an English fragrance – but I never give the name to anyone. It's very personal to me and I don't want other people to start using it."
